The hour of decision is tonight at 8 P.M. in Bristol Auditorium at Old Rochester Regional High School at the Special Mattapoisett Town Meeting.

Mattapoisett voters will undertake a re-examination of their position and choose whether or not to request the Upper Cape Cod Regional Vocational-Technical School Committee to draw up an amendment to the agreement setting the terms of the town's withdrawal.

In the meantime, two public meetings have been held to inform the people of the town in which the facts have been presented. The Vocational School Committee appeared in the first public meeting and outlined the history of the planning stages. In this initial period, preliminary estimates, which were furnished by the State, were multiplied to comply with requirement imposed by the State. The resulting estimated total of $3,741,700.00 prompted Mattapoisett residents to reconsider participation.

In recent years, Mattapoisett has furnished its school children with the finest facilities and school buildings. The townspeople have supported the building of Old Rochester Regional High (which is already under study caused by approaching capacity enrollment). Old Hammondtown School furnished the elementary school youngsters with a brand new facility. The town has demonstrated its consideration for students and has faced its educational responsibilities. In assessing the impact of the estimated Vocational School costs, as compared to the expected benefits to be derived by the up to ten or eleven pupils a year which would be Mattapoissett's allotment, the people of the town are demonstrating a prudence made necessary by the rising tax rate. This is a serious concern to every property owner in the town.

The Upper Cape Cod Vocational-Technical School Committee has presented the town with cost estimate which does not reflect any State and Federal assistance. We have been presented the bleakest picture. It can be assumed that help from these two sources will lower the impact on the tax rate of Mattapoissett.

This is a complex problem. The presentation of Mattapoisett only 165 made the original commitment — because they were there. The vote was 84 yes and 77 no. Seven votes formed the majority. This sparse representation gives every voter, who bothers to come, great power. The voters who stay home multiply the impact of every vote cast by enormous proportions.

Mattapoisett committed itself to the Region by this vote which pledged the Town's word to participate in this Vocational program. Now, the question is whether the estimated costs have risen so much that they offer a hazard serious enough to warrant the withdrawal of this pledge. This is no easy decision and deserves the consideration of every voter who can manage to participate. No matter what you think, it will count in only one place — the Special Town Meeting tonight, Wednesday, February 15th, at 8 P.M. at the Old Rochester Regional High School auditorium.

CONCERT

MUSICALE PRESENTED IN MATTAPOISETT

The Music Group, recent development of the Fine Arts Group of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club, is winning many friends and with good reason. Its active chairman, Mrs. Charles A. Adams, may well be proud of the Wednesday morning Musicale February 8th at the home of one of the performers, Mrs. Frederick Reynard, of Hammond Street.

Gladys W. Reynard, as she is professionally known, pianist, and Florence Kilpatrick, familiar to local concert goers as Recorder artist, presented an attractive program with skill and authority. In addition, program notes were expertly given and recent news of the music world recounted by Mrs. John W. Ruzicka and Mrs. George W. Fisher.

Before the flute-like tones of the Recorder were heard, Mrs. Kilpatrick described her instrument as the favorite for solo performance among the ancient "family of Recorders, well known to Shakespeare, and mentioned in "Hamlet". To Mrs. Reynard's piano accompaniment, she first played the "Sonata In C Major" by Loeillet and, as encore, "Serenade" by To-selli, two separate delights.

As prelude to the major work of the morning, Grieg's magnificent and tumultuous "Sonata in E Minor" for piano, Mrs. Ruzicka, herself a pianist, told something of the composer's life and struggles. Great virtuosity and musicianship are demanded by this composition, and Gladys Reynard's eloquent fingers gave good account of both to the great enjoyment of her audience. She responded to their enthusiasm by playing a tender and melodious number by Christian Sinding, "Rustle of Spring". A concert hall could have welcomed such artistry of performance.

Concluding the program, Mrs. Fisher described a history making concert which she recently attended at Symphony Hall, Boston. Eliot Carter's ultra modern Concerto for piano and orchestra was premiered by soloist Jacob Lateiner and the Boston Symphony under the baton of Eric Leinsdorf. Not all listeners were prepared for the assault upon their ear drums, Mrs. Fisher said, but conceded it to be important. She also touched briefly upon opera at the new "Met" at Lincoln Center, New York.

Pourer at the coffee hour for the twenty who attended, despite the new fallen snow, was the honored Mrs. Marshall W. Ross, Third Vice-President of the State Federation of Women's Clubs and Mattapoisett's own former club president. The current president, Mrs. Frank W. Oxnard, was confined to the house, but sent greetings. Beautiful red and white carnation corsages adorned the shoulders of the performers, Mrs. Reynard and Mrs. Kilpatrick, their donor a mystery which added further color to the event.

Since the Reynards are soon to leave Mattapoisett, this opportunity to enjoy the musical event in their home was especially valued.

LATEST ON CAMELOT

For those who would like the answer to the puzzling question, "How to handle a woman", or have wondered what are the "Seven Deadly Virtues", the best suggestion is to see "Camelot". These are the titles of two of the eleven appealing lyrics of the Lerner and Loewe musical to be presented February 23, 24 and 25 at Old Rochester Regional High School promptly at 8:15 P.M.

Latecomers will not be admitted until after the second scene, a period of about 20 minutes.

The new 14-member organization was officially chartered December 31, 1966, and just a short two weeks ago staged a Charter Night celebration at the Colonial Coach Restaurant in Marion. Division 4 Lt. nor from New Bedford High School.

Additional guests included Dr. Joseph C. Kunces, superintendent of the Old Rochester Regional School District; Donald N. Gavin, Principal of the Old Rochester Regional High School; and William Priest, president of the New Bedford High School Key Club. Key Club members recognized as charter members included the officers: William Spark, president; Philip Cusick, vice-president; Donald Ben David, secretary; and Richard Nolan, treasurer; and the following members: Nelson Adams, Gary Bobola, Kenneth Cacilhas, Peter Callahan, Michael Collyer, Adelio DeMiranda, David Helfand, Wayne Guilherme, Peter Prescott, and Terrence Prunty. Llewellyn V. Roberts, president of the Kiwanis Club in the towns, served as Master of Ceremonies.

The Key Club is under the personal direction of William P. Campbell of the ORRHS faculty. He is assisted by Athletic Director Frank Almeida. Mr. Campbell took the initiative as a Kiwanis member in November to establish a Key Club at the high school. Following clearance with the administration at both the high school and with Kiwanis Club, he advertised the proposed Key Club. Ten of the 14 charter members responded to Mr. Campbell's call and the Key Club was born. Since then, the new club has been on the move. The first official act was a clean-up campaign after the Barnstable-OR football game and also the Wareham-OR game. Early in December, the group conducted a very successful cake sale, netting the treasury more than 75 dollars. The initiative was all theirs. Now the ORR Key Club has taken on several new tasks designed to raise money. The Club operates the soft drink concession at home basketball games and runs the student paperback bookstore in the cafeteria.

As a dynamic new force at the high school, the Key Clubbers envision a number of worthwhile projects, particularly the granting of a Key Club scholarship from the monies they raise. Probably their one proudest accomplishment is the one-day auto safety campaign they carried out unbeknownst to the faculty. One bright January day after a period of bad weather, the 14 members went out into the faculty parking lot and cleaned windshields, headlights, directional lights, backup lights, parking lights, appending a little reminder to each car's windshield wipers that safety should never be taken for granted. Needless to say, this little gesture earned them several points with the faculty members.

It is little projects like these that make the difference, what Dr. Kunces called the "marginal difference", as he addressed the group on Charter Night. "Collectively," he told them, "you can do a tremendous amount of Llewellyn V. Roberts, president of the Kiwanis Club of Marion-Mattapoisett, announced today that Senior year students at the Old Rochester Regional High School and Tabor Academy are eligible for 21 scholarship awards to be made by the New England District of Kiwanis International. Interested seniors are urged to check with their school officials with regard to the awards.

These scholarships provide toward four years tuition in a college of the recipient's own choice. Bases for the awards are need, character, scholarship, and leadership qualities. They are made without regard to sex, race, creed, color or national origin. Four new Kiwanis Scholarships are awarded each year.

Kiwanis scholars from the New England states are now attending the Universities of Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Maine, Bates College, Providence College, Simmons College, Boston University, Brown University, Georgetown University, Tufts College, College of St. Rose, and a number of State Teacher's Colleges.

Funds for these scholarships are derived from a foundation originated and administered by New England Kiwanis and supported by voluntary contributions from individual Kiwanis members in New England. Town folks of Mattapoisett,

This is an appeal to the Fathers and Mothers of school children in Grades 1 through 8 in the Mattapoisett School System

1. We are all well aware that skilled tradesmen are extremely scarce.
2. We are also well aware of the truth that not all our children are college material.
3. We are also well aware that many adults, through no fault of their own, must seek new fields of employment with the consequent need for retraining.
4. Thus, making our townspeople independent wage earners and/or independent tradesmen will definitely affect the economy of Mattapoisett in that, amongst many reasons, we have NO Vocational graduates on the Welfare Rolls.

Therefore, if you are interested in the future economy of your own family, your children, and your fellow townspeople, I urge you to attend the special Town Meeting tonight and vote that OUR TOWN remain with the new Vocational District.

George S. White
